

UNM

Geography & Environmental Studies

SPRING 2016 COLLOQUIUM SCHEDULE

Fridays, 3:00pm
Dane Smith Hall 126

- |             |  |
|-------------|--|
| January 29  | Dr. Joseph Cook , Professor, Director of the Museum of Southwestern Biology, University of New Mexico“Beringia: A Dynamic Nexus between the Northern Continents”   |
| February 12 | Dr. Frank Norris , Historian, National Trails Intermountain Office, National Park Service“A Geographical History of the Santa Fe Trail”  |
| February 26 | Dr. Lindsay Lowe Worthington , Assistant Professor, Earth and Planetary Sciences, University of New Mexico“Glaciers, Tectonics and Time: The Story of the St. Elias Mountains, southern Alaska”            |
| March 11    | Dr. Jamal Martin , Director, Peace and Justice Studies, Africana Studies, University of New Mexico“The Built Environment and Population Health Inequities under ‘Settler Colonialism’ in Palestine/Israel” |
| April 15    | Dr. Melinda Benson , Associate Professor, Geography & Environmental Studies, University of New Mexico“Shifting Public Land Management Paradigms: Lessons from the Valles Caldera National Preserve”        |
| April 29    | Dr. Michael Hauck , Executive Director, American Society of Photogrammetry and Remote Sensing“Geography, Information, and Systems: Past, Present, and Future”  |